Cookie Policy

Cookies are small pieces of information, stored in simple text files, placed on your computer by a website. Some cookies can be read by the website on your subsequent visits. The information stored in a cookie may relate to your browsing activities on the website, or a unique identifier so that the website can 'remember' you on your return visit. Other cookies are deleted when you close your browser and only relate to the working of the website. The Cookies do not contain personal information from which you can be identified.

You consent to our essential cookies if you continue to use our website.

Cookies on this website

Most browsers allow you to turn off cookies or to customise your settings for cookies. To find out how to do this, see the 'Help' menu on your browser. Please note that if you turn off cookies or change your settings, some features of the website may not work correctly. Necessary cookies are session cookies, which means they are not stored permanently on your computer or mobile device. Session cookies are used to provide basic website functions while you are actively using the website. Session cookies are usually deleted when you close your browser.

Matomo Analytics

To better understand site usage while respecting user privacy, we have introduced Matomo Analytics, a self-hosted analytics solution. Matomo operates without setting cookies and utilises cookieless tracking to gather anonymous data on user behaviour. No personally identifiable information is stored or tracked in relation to your browsing activities on our website.
